Re: Our Sincere Condolences Over the Passing of Chief Justice Camillo Noket

Dear Acting Chief Justice Samuel, all Chuuk State Supreme Court Judges and Staff, Mrs. Anna Noket and family:

On behalf of myself and all of the judges and staff of the Supreme Court of the Federated States of Micronesia, I want to express our most heartfelt condolences over the untimely passing of Chief Justice Camillo Noket. We also want to send our sympathies and prayers to Chief Justice Noket's wife Anna and family. We know it is such a huge loss of a great judge and leader of your court, as well as a husband, father, and a traditional leader. We will miss Chief Justice Noket's presence, contributions and sense of humor immensely.

The FSM Supreme Court stands ready to assist with your arrangements for the state funeral. Please keep us informed of your plans on this and let us know how we can assist. Also, my court stands ready to assist your court in any way. As I'm sure you are well aware, Chief Justice Noket sat on many of our appeals when our judges had to recuse themselves. We thus feel his loss as a part of our court also.

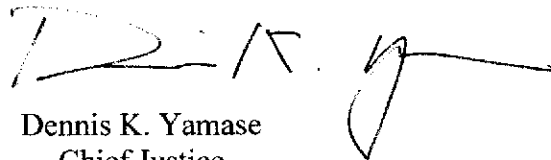

I will additionally miss Camillo as a good and close personal friend. He, his wife, and I traveled to St. Luke's last year when I got my back surgeries. I have attended numerous trainings, meetings, and other court functions with him. Things will not be the same without his insightfulness and participation.
