National Supreme Court of Federated States of Micronesia, Administered oath to new FSM bar members.

Every year, after administration of FSM bar and determination of passing grade, FSM Supreme Court gather for administration of oath to new FSM bar member.

On June 13, 2019, Associate Justice Larry Wentworth administered oath to Mrs. Carolyn Crump and Mr. James Crosby. Mrs. Carolyn Crump is a residence of Pohnpei and she currently worked with FSM Department of Justice as Assistant Attorney General since she moved to Pohnpei in June 2018. Prior to passing the FSM bar, Mrs. Carolyn Crump is a member of Maryland bar with good standing.

Mr. James Crosby is also a legal residence of Pohnpei and a legal citizen of the United States. Mr. Crosby worked with Pohnpei Supreme Court as a law clerk. Prior to passing the FSM Bar, Mr. Crosby was an active member of California bar since May 2017.

In attendance of the ceremony were family, friends and colleagues of Ms. Carolyn Crump and Mr. James Crosby to witness them receive their oath. The Honorable Larry Wentworth concluded the proceeding by congratulating the two newly admitted bar member for their great accomplishment.
